

Hot link: Distance Learning Module

Feedback from distance learning CD ROM is gathered through a mail shot to all purchasers of the interactive CD ROM.

A questionnaire is used to gather information concerning the effectiveness of the resource as a training tool for both teachers and trainees and the effect that it has had on pupils' learning. This is building into a longitudinal study based on action research by teachers using the resource.